CORRESPONDENCE

On 03/20/2020, you submitted a Form I-918, Supplement A, Petition for Qualifying Family Member of U-1 Recipient (Form I-918, Supplement A) for your family member. In order to approve a Form I-918, Supplement A, the principal's petition for U Nonimmigrant Status (Form I-918) must first be approved. As the statutory cap for U-1 nonimmigrant status has been reached for this fiscal year, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) may not grant U-1 nonimmigrant status to any petitioner until new visas become available. Under 8 U.S.C. 1184(p)(6) and 1103(a), the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) may conduct a bona fide determination, and if warranted as a matter of discretion, provide employment authorization and deferred action.

At this time, the evidence demonstrates your family member's Form I-918, Supplement A petition for U nonimmigrant status is bona fide, and that they warrant a favorable exercise of discretion to receive employment authorization and deferred action. Your family member's employment authorization document and grant of deferred action are valid for a period of four years. Deferred action is an act of administrative convenience to the government which gives some cases lower priority for removal. However, USCIS updates and reviews background and security checks at regular intervals during this period, and USCIS reserves the right to revoke your employment authorization and terminate the grant of deferred action at any time if it determines they are no longer warranted or were granted in error.

USCIS grants employment authorization based on the bona fide determination and favorable exercise of discretion described above under 8 U.S.C. 1184(p)(6), as well as under 8 CFR 274a.12(c)(14), which gives the agency the authority to provide employment authorization to noncitizens placed in deferred action. On 03/20/2020, your family member filed a Form I-765. This Form I-765 is based on your family member's pending Form I-918, Supplement A, which USCIS has determined is bona fide. Please be aware that your family member's currently filed Form I-765 will be adjudicated as if it were filed under 8 CFR, section 274a.12(c)(14). Your family member will receive separate correspondence regarding the adjudication of your family member's Form I-765.

Priority for the issuance of U nonimmigrant status will be determined by the date the Form I-918 was received by USCIS. Once a visa is available to your family member, USCIS will determine their eligibility for U nonimmigrant status, and whether they are admissible to the United States.

If you are represented by an attorney, all further correspondence should be accompanied by Form G-28, Notice of Entry of Appearance as Attorney or Accredited Representative.

This notice does not constitute valid U nonimmigrant status or employment authorization, and may not be used to demonstrate legal immigration or employment status.

Please see the additional information on the back. You will be notified separately about any other cases you filed.
